

8th November 2000

STEFEN HODGE

My favourite memory at barnhill so far was when we went on 3 trips. The first one was to Canterbury, it took us about 2 or three hours to get there. When we got there we walked through the streets of Canterbury and went to the Cathedral. Inside was totally amazing I had seen nothing like it. After that we went to a place called 'The Canterbury Tales' it was a place where it took you back in time to the Middle Ages.